1. Have you ever been judged unfairly? What was it like?
2. Have you ever been judged fairly? How did you respond?
3. Have you ever caught yourself severely criticizing other people behind their backs—or to their faces? What motivated your criticism?
4. Why are Christians often among the most critical and self-righteous people? How does this happen?
5. Why are questions of judgement often so divisive?
6. Why must Christians show love in the face of a brother's or sister's failing?
