Here Comes The King
Mark 11:1-10

1. Have you ever met someone really 'important' like a prime minister, ambassador, or a member of the royal family? What was it like? How did you act?
2. How was Jesus' entry into Jerusalem in Mark 11:1-10 out of character for Him?
3. How do we know that the crowd recognized something about Jesus' declaring His kingship?
4. Why do you think Jesus is so polarizing?
5. What are some identity 'emblems' people struggle to relinquish to Jesus?
6. Are there any 'emblems' of your identity that you struggle to lay down in your life? Would you be willing to share them? What would help you relinquish those things?
