Title: And Now...the Church!

Passage: Luke 5; Matt 28

1. Think of the home you grew up in. Would you describe it as having a revolving door [lots of people in and out] or a swinging door [sometimes open, usually closed]? Is your home today similar or different?
2. Read Luke 6:12-13. What do we learn from Jesus about relationships in His choosing of the Twelve?
3. How comfortable are you inviting people into your home?
4. When you have people over, do you go to great lengths to make sure everything looks and is "just right"?
5. How comfortable are you inviting people into your life? Do you try to make things look "just right" in your life?
6. What would you need to do in order to invite people into the 'messy' parts of your life? What stops you?
